

Nicole Hounjet

Nicole Hounjet is the Music and Fine Arts Director of the band, choral, and musical theatre programs at Foothills Composite High School/Alberta High School of Fine Arts.

During her time at FCHS/AHSFA her ensembles have regularly performed and have been recognized at provincial and national music festivals. Nicole is a board member for Choir Alberta and conducts the Westwinds Women's choir.

She has been fortunate to have had wonderful teachers including Gregory Boers, Rodney Eichenberger, Deborah Cairns and Elaine Case. She also had remarkable school music teachers: Patricia MacFarlane, Larry Schrum, and Rob Speers.

As an educator, Nicole empowers her singers to fully engage in the music by building a mutual trust among the ensemble.
